| |1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.| Not your everyday wrecks in this one | By Keith Bickel |The pictures in this volume are, apparently, all from eastern European sources. Lots of beute French armor, a whole mess of repurposed Italian stuff, even some T-34s, as well as retired German vehicles unfit for front line service. There are a few late model German tanks, & even armored trains. The last 30+ pages are all about | About the Author | Lee Archer is a military vehicle historian living in Old Heathfield, Sussex with his wife and daughter. He previously designed master models for Accurate Armour of Scotland and was a regular contributor to model magazines. Lee has published twen
How did partisans improve the firepower of the Somua S35? And where did it end up? Who was ambushed at Vukov Klanac? What vehicles did they lose? Why did a German Panzer unit pose as Allied tankers? Where did the Yugoslav Army collect and overhaul captured German AFVs?

The answers to these and other questions are to be found here in Panzerwrecks 19, with 151 rare and unpublished large format photographs sourced from around the world.
